BRIAN LAM

email: brianlam@cs.stanford.edu
phone: (650) 906-8971
site: www.brianlam.io

EDUCATION

Stanford University   Conferred December 2015
B.S. in Computer Science, Systems Track

EXPERIENCE

Software Engineer, Facebook   January 2016 - Present
Full-stack development on Ads Measurement team building Conversion Lift product
Architected and led development on first public facing product, Automated Brand Lift
Inherited product development of brand polling from satellite solutions team

CS110 Course Assistant, Stanford Computer Science   Autumn 2015
Graded student projects; held office hours, and lead exam review sessions

CS106 Section Leader, Stanford CS198 Program   Winter 2013 - Spring 2015
Led weekly review sessions, held office hours, and graded student projects for introductory CS course

Software Engineering Intern, Zendesk   Summer 2014
Built a client side validation framework and content editor for client-uploaded data

Engineering Consultant, Brightsky Labs   Summer 2014
Designed and built API to interact with GoPro for iOS app, 10app

Platform Engineering Intern, StubHub!   Summer 2013
Built a development environment framework to support engineering team

Research Coordinator, Political Psychology Research Group   December 2011 - September 2012
Managed team of 15 undergraduate research assistants

Research Assistant, Political Psychology Research Group   September 2011 - September 2012
Completed two projects with the American National Election Studies

SKILLS

Programming Languages: Proficient at JavaScript (jQuery, Node, Ember, React), PHP/Hack, and Java.
Exposure to C++, Ruby/ Ruby on Rails, and Python
Tools: Git, Mercurial, Flow